

Connected to Community Service Award

2020 Application

Your pathway to the world

What is the Connected to Community Service Award?

This award is to honor a person who lives in the community served by Citizens Connected and who is making a significant contribution to their community through their time, actions, talents and dedication. The honoree selected should be a role model for their dedication to serve their community and strive to make new connections that bring us closer together as families, as neighbors and therefore as a community as a whole.

The award will be presented by the Cooperative to one individual during our Annual meeting of Citizens Telephone Cooperative, Inc.

Criteria:

- Person being nominated for this award will have consistently demonstrated qualities of dedication and service to either one organization or a variety of volunteer activities in one year.
- The charitable activities/events or service listed on the application cannot be part of the nominee's job description or duties and the individual cannot receive any monetary or personal benefits from their involvement.
- No self-nominations.
- Nominations can only be made by a member of Citizens Connected.

Is the Connected to Community Service Award only awarded to cooperative members?

No, Citizens Connected members may nominate a nonmember or member for this award.
